

Images 2004

Performing Arts – 14-15 February

Press Insert

\** This section below contains those performers who are scheduled on or around the stage. ****

Jazzmin

Bassist George Berry, guitarist and vocalist Kathy Ivers, and guitarist Eddie Kavetsky are known as Jazzmin and enthusiastically perform acoustic music. Their performances include most of older musical arrangements because they feel the melodies and harmonies best fit their style.

<http://www.geocities.com/musicbyjazzmin>

New Smyrna Beach High School Showdolls

The award winning Show Dolls re-enact a diverse range of musical performances with their dazzling colorful array of talented dancing entertainers. They always capture their audience with a kaleidoscope of sound and motion.

The Bandees

The artistically creative favorite of many audiences are Stephen and Patricia Dees who combine their talents in the Bandees. Their performance blends Rock, Pop, Folk, Jazz, Celtic, and a bit of Rock-a-Billy to take listeners through diverse and energetic musical experiences.

<http://www.bandees.com/menu.html>

Lionheart Band

Based out of New Smyrna Beach, this five-member band is known for its crowd-pleasing rhythm. Whether they play Rhythm & Blues, Classic Rock, Disco, or Island music, their enthusiasm is infectious to all audiences.

Jacqueline Jones

Web Photo:

Captivating audiences with her voice, wit, and showmanship comes naturally for the dynamic Jacqueline Jones through a spirited blend of Jazz, Rhythm and Blues, and Contemporary music. Whenever Miss Jones is on stage -- whether in song or in playful banter with the audience -- her devotion to the fine art of entertaining shines through.

<http://www.aboutmissjones.com/missjones.html>

Don Nedobeck Ensemble

Interactive and witty entertainment are features of this ensemble who cleverly recreate early-American broadcast musical performances. Their charisma skillfully blends melody and humor with the full sound of instrumentals.

US Navy Band

Pride is Navy Band Southeast's top-40 rock band. The band entertains playing a wide variety of contemporary music. Whether playing today's top-40, country sounds, or even a touch of classic rock, this band presents a vibrant and unique sound.

http://www.cnrse.navy.mil/Special%20Assistants/navy\_band/NBSE.htm

Larwence App

Singer-songwriter Lawrence App performs a set of original and famous cover tunes that reflect his expressions of Jazz and international music. His performances will feature vocals and guitar in a mixed-media experience drawing from his two CDs, Dark Into Light and Acculturation.

Jeff Rupert's Art of Bossa Nova

Famed Jazz saxophonist Jeff Rupert leads an extraordinary talented group called "Art of Bossa Nova." This exciting group combines samba rhythms with sophisticated harmonies and understated melodies to produce music that charms listeners worldwide.

\** The section below contains those performers who continuously throughout the day. ****

Marcus Paul

Marcus Paul is an original Jazz guitarist who adds a wide range of percussion methods to enhance his music. With background music of his guitar and piano, Marcus plays the folk Harp and Flute Recorders to create some of the most beautiful music that some consider heavenly.

<http://www.marcuspaul.com>

Paul Price

Paul Price performs instrumental and smooth jazz styles played on acoustic and electric guitars and the Chapman Stick. Through the use of stationery stands holding various instruments, Paul plays several instruments by switching between them during a song.